Regional Experts and Stakeholders Consultations on Natural Resources and Good Governance for Sustainable Peace, Development and Transformation of the Great Lakes Region

Co-organized by ICGLR and O/SESG-GL

5-6 July 2017, Nairobi, Kenya
Safari Park Hotel

Concept note

Summary

A two-day experts and stakeholders' consultation meeting co-organized by the ICGLR and O/SESG will take place in Nairobi from 5th to 6th July 2017. The meeting will be in two segments. The first day will focus on overall brief on the progress of implementation of the Regional Initiative on Natural Resources (RINR) and will identify areas of specific challenges and ways to support the full implementation of the RINR and also focus on guidelines and legal initiatives towards combating illegal exploitation of natural resources in the Great Lakes Region. The second segment will seek to identify the illegal exploitation activities by negative forces in the GLR and the criminal networks that facilitate the illegal exploitation and trade within and outside the region.

The outcome of the consultations will be submitted to the ICGLR Regional Committee on Natural Resources and ICGLR National Coordinators for purposes of technical analysis and further guidance.

The consultation is in line with the request, made on 20th July 2016 in Nairobi, Kenya, by Defence Ministers from ICGLR and SADC Member States to the Executive Secretary of the ICGLR and the UN Special Envoy 'to convene a dedicated meeting on the issue of illegal exploitation and trade of natural resources.' The recommendation was endorsed by the Seventh High-Level Meeting of the Regional Oversight Mechanism (ROM) of the Peace and Security and Cooperation (PSC) Framework on 26th October 2016 in Luanda, Angola.

Objectives

1. Share updates and challenges on implementation of the ICGLR Regional Initiative on Natural Resources and other strategies aimed at combating the illegal exploitation of natural resources in the Great Lakes Region in general and in eastern DRC, in particular.
2. Assess collaboration and coordination trends or lapses, identify opportunities, and risks, and make concrete recommendations on collaboration and coordination in order to reinforce the implementation of the ICGLR Regional Initiative on Natural Resources; and
3. Assess how ICGLR and O/SESG and especially the Executive Secretary and the Special Envoy can facilitate and coordinate stakeholders' efforts and add value at political, regional and international contexts.

Outcomes

1. Report on strategies and recommendations aimed at implementation of the Regional Initiative on Natural Resources in order to combat the illegal exploitation of natural resources in the Great Lakes Region with special attention to eastern DRC with concrete recommendations on collaboration and coordination.
2. Initial mapping of forms, size and consequences of international crime, sustained by the illegal production and trade of natural resources and its links to non-state armed forces in eastern DRC;
3. Assessment and tracking of ways to undercut the financial sources of the negative forces in eastern DRC and the region.
4. Recommendations for regional cooperation of stakeholders' efforts facilitated and coordinated by ICGLR and O/SESG.
